

Information sheet: SCHENGEN VISA Airport transit

This information leaflet has been generated by the German Embassy in Dhaka. It is valid for visa applications in Bangladesh if you require an airport transit visa for Germany. This leaflet stipulates the legal requirements and can be downloaded free of charge. Applicants are requested to read it carefully and observe the regulations as stated below – see I. through IV.

Please note:

Entry clearance requirements depend on the citizenship and resident status of the applicant (sometimes in a third country). Only a flight through one Schengen Union Country at a time is considered as a transit. The vast majority of travellers do not need a visa when air transiting through Germany.

If you leave the airport's international transit area, i.e. change the terminal, you will have to apply for a Schengen Visa Category-C.

A Schengen Visa Category-A (airport transit without entering Germany) is no longer required for Bangladeshi citizens in order to transit through German airports if the passenger stays within the transit area and if he or she holds one of the residence permits listed below, with the issuing country being the final destination of the journey.
