

Information sheet: Transit Visa

This information leaflet has been generated by the German Embassy in Dhaka. It is valid for visa applications in Bangladesh if you require an airport transit visa for Germany. This leaflet stipulates the legal requirements and can be downloaded free of charge. Applicants are requested to read it carefully and observe the regulations as stated below – see I. till IV.

A Schengen Visa Category-A (airport transit without entering Germany) might be not required for Bangladeshi citizens in order to transit through German airports if the passenger stays within the transit area and if they hold a residence permits of a Schengen Union Country.

Please note:

Entry clearance requirements depend on the citizenship and resident status of the applicant (sometimes in a third country). Only a flight through one Schengen Union Country at a time is considered as a transit. The vast majority of travellers do not need a visa when air transiting through Germany. In Germany, the following airports have an International Transit Area:

- Frankfurt am Main
- München
- Hamburg -- transit only possible between 4:30 am and 11:30 pm
- Düsseldorf - transit only possible between 6:00 am and 9:00 pm and only if the airline has arranged the transit with airport security – please check with your airline
- Berlin Brandenburg - transit only possible between 5:30 am and 11:30 pm and only if the airline has arranged the transit with airport security – please check with your airline

This information is not legally binding. Please get in contact with your airline.
