

Information for visa applicants for re-entry

Bangladeshi nationals who normally live in Germany and have lost their residence permit or whose residence permit is expired need a re-entry visa.

An application may only be filed at the German Embassy Dhaka under the provision that the applicant has a residence in Germany and the applicant has left Germany within the last few months.

Application

Please use our contact form to receive an appointment.

Admission to the Visa Section of the German Embassy will only be granted at the time of the scheduled appointment. Being late for more than 15 minutes will consequently result in scheduling a new appointment.

The visa application must be supported by all the necessary documents as only applications with complete documentation can be accepted.

Simultaneous applications for a Schengen visa and a National visa cannot be processed.

Fees

Visa fees are payable in BDT. The fees are fixed in Euro – therefore the equivalent in Bangladeshi currency may vary according to the exchange rate. The complete fee has to be paid upon application and will not be refunded in case the visa application is rejected.

Processing Time

Your application has to be forwarded to the competent immigration authorities in Germany for final approval. Therefore, an estimated processing time cannot be given.

Checklist

Before submitting your application, please prepare the documents in the following order:

- Valid passport (issued within the last 10 years; passports with observations on the front data page cannot be accepted) with at least two empty pages
- 1 passport photo complying with biometric specifications, not older than 6 months
- Application form & declaration duly signed
- Copy of your passport's data page (A4 size copy)
- current confirmation of existing health insurance in Germany or travel health insurance for 90 days from the planned entry
- Proof of the date of departure from Germany (e.g. presentation of the old flight ticket)
- a copy of your old residence permit

- Proof of the purpose of your stay in Germany (e.g. proof of enrolment at the university for students, marriage certificate for spouse reunification, employment contract for employment)
- If applicable: General Diary (GD) copy from the concerned authority by mentioning that you lost your residence permit documents
- If possible, pre-approval from the Foreigners Authority
- Visa fee

Missing documents may be handed in after the application has been filed with the Embassy. They are to be sent by e-mail, mail or handed in in person at the Embassy's gate. The five-digit file number of the application must be indicated on the envelope.

Failure to produce any of the documents above or further documents required within a set period of time is likely to lead to refusal of the application. Deadlines set may be extended after consultation with the officer in charge.

All photocopies must be fully legible and will be refused in case they are not.

It is expected that an applicant is reachable through the cell phone number and email address provided on the application form.

All documents in Bengali (or other language) have to be supported by an English or German translation.

Please do not submit documents in both English and German. Preferable submit the German version of the document.

Please note that the German Missions reserve the right to ask for additional documents or the verification of certificates, for which additional fees would be charged.

Submission of the above-mentioned documents does not guarantee that a visa is granted.

The regulations have been issued by the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany and are subject to change without prior notice.
